

COME SPILL YOUR BEANS AT

COFFEE IS FOR CLOSERS

THURSDAYS 9-10AM, LOWTH CENTER

The University of Tampa is excited to share an amazing event for opportunities, Coffee Is for Closers.

"Coffee is for Closers" Every Thursday at the Lowth Center, the top floor of the ICB building. The Lowth Entrepreneurship center is pleased to share that every Thursday from 9-10 am we are hosting an amazing event to give new opportunities for students and future entrpeners! Wether or not you are interested in the world of sales and business, this event is a great way for you to learn about the world of self-made success.

We hope that by attending this event you will be submerged in a world of collaboration. We believe its important for students to collaborate with others and learn about the professional world they one day will be thrown into. Not only is it beneficial for networking, students can learn secrets about the sales world and develop an understanding of the commitment it takes to truly succeed in this world we live in!

We encourage all students to attend and collaborate with all different people within the world, professionals and students. We believe as an Entrepreneurship center that we will deliver an insightful and beneficial event worth your time to attend. We are dedicated to empowering students and inspiring a world of success. Our mission is to impact the world of business and teach students that they do have what it takes. You won't be disappointed by Coffee is for Closers!
